

In order to use the library, please bring your student ID or library card.

Opening hours

Hours during school term		Hours for term breaks
Weekdays	Weekend,holidays	Weekdays	Weekend,holidays
9 : 00 ~ 21 : 30	9 : 00 ~ 17 : 00	9 : 00 ~ 17 : 00	Closed

Please note that the library conducts inventory on the fourth Thursday from April to June, October. During these periods, open hours will be restricted (17:00-21:30).

Closing days

- Saturdays, Sundays and holidays during term breaks
- The summer holiday period
- New Year's holiday
- University entrance exam dates
- Academic exam dates
- Dates of the Mutsume-Festival

A calendar of open hours is posted at the counter.

Extraordinary closures will be announced via the library homepage and bulletin.

Book Lending

Classification	Number of documents	Lending period	Renewals allowed
Undergraduate and Graduate students, people of equivalent status	Up to 10	Up to 2 weeks	Up to 3 times
Executive staff, Faculty	Up to 20	Up to 4 weeks	Up to 3 times
Staff, Professor emeritus, Former faculty and employees	Up to 10	Up to 2 weeks	Up to 3 times

* With permission from their supervisors, undergraduate and graduate students writing graduation theses, master theses or doctoral dissertations may apply for permission to borrow up to 20 documents for up to 4 weeks.

- Please borrow books via the automatic lending machine or the loan counter, using your student ID or library certificate.
- To return books, please bring them to the return counter during open hours, or to the book post next to the library entrance during closing hours.
- If you return materials past the return deadline date, you will be barred from borrowing again for a period equal to the number of days late.
- Books “currently on loan” can be reserved one week from their date of return. Please be aware, however, that the reservation will be cancelled if the book is overdue.
- The loan period for borrowed materials may be renewed up to 3 times. Please use the OPAC user service menu and/or the automatic lending machine.
- If the loan period ends on a day during which the library is closed, the loan period will automatically be extended until the end of the holiday. Details will be announced on the library homepage and bulletin board.

Reference service

- Feel free to inquire about the location of library materials, literature, items and use of the library.

Library Assistants (LA)

- Graduate student library assistants (LA) provide learning support, including consultations on researching and writing papers. They can be found at the support desk on the second floor.

Institutional Repository

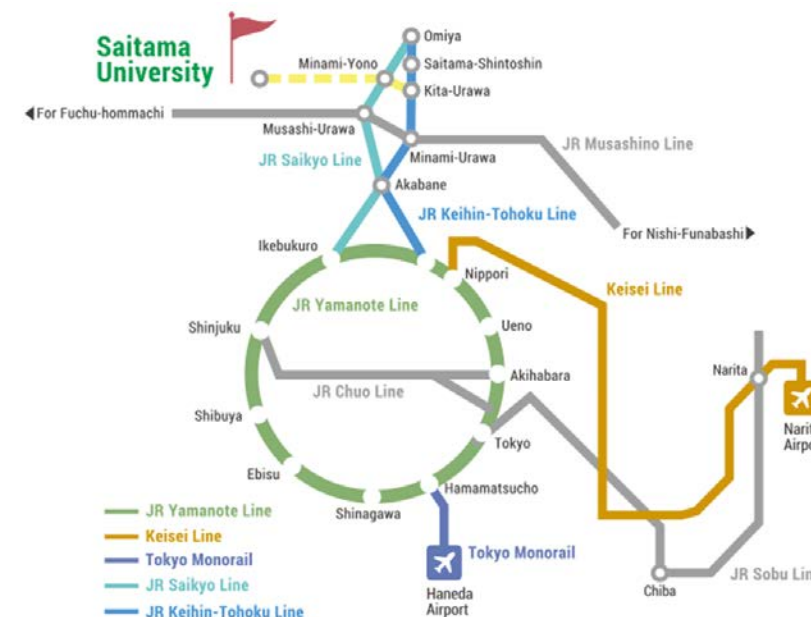

- Researchers can read the full texts and abstracts of academic journals, bulletins, research reports, dissertations, research presentation materials by Saitama University faculty and students, and the like in the institutional repository.
- Please use the following URL.
<https://sucra.repo.nii.ac.jp/>

Database - Electronic Journals etc.

- The library provides various databases, electronic journals and e-books.
- The portal can be accessed via the library website.
<http://www.lib.saitama-u.ac.jp/>

Book purchase request

- If books necessary for study or research are not in the library, you can apply to have them purchased.
- Please confirm via OPAC that the article is not in the library and apply at the Reference Counter. You can also request this via the library website.

Get off at JR Keihin-Tohoku Line's Kita-Urawa Station and take the bus for Saitama University (about 15 minutes) or

Get off at JR Saikyo Line's Minami-Yono Station and take the bus for Saitama University (about 10 minutes)

< Library Conduct >

- Food and drinks are prohibited everywhere other than the first floor lounge
- Please handle library materials carefully so as not to damage them
- Please be sure to take all your valuables with you when leaving your seat.